

Common Core Standards Bookmarks

Literature (Fiction)

Before Reading

Make predictions to figure out what the story will be about.

While Reading

Pay close attention to what characters do, say, think, and how they act to figure out what they are like. Also, think about the theme of the story. What lesson does the author want the reader to learn?

After Reading

Use information from the text to prove your answers.

Informational (Nonfiction)

Before Reading

Make a prediction to figure out what the text will be about by looking at the title, illustrations, and sub-headings.

While Reading

Think about the information the author wants you to learn. Make sure to read captions next to pictures as well as read information in charts.

After Reading

Use information from the text to prove your answers.

Additional Products from Literacy and Math Ideas

Fact & Opinion Lunch Learning Center

$1.25

Your students will enjoy helping Fact and Opinion make their lunches. Fact only likes foods with facts on them. Opinion only likes foods with opinions on them.

Main Idea Street Literacy Centers & Task Cards

$2.50

In the first game, students learn main idea by placing houses with details on them onto streets with main idea street signs. This document includes two learning centers and a set of colorful main idea task cards.

Author's Purpose Snacks Learning Center and Worksheets

$2.25

This learning center is sure make anyone hungry. Students sort potato chip game pieces into the correct potato chip bags to review author's purpose. This bundle includes an author's purpose learning center game and worksheets for one low price.

Cause & Effect Puzzles

$1.50

This is a unique and engaging way to learn and review cause and effect. TWELVE self-checking two-piece puzzles are included. Students match each cause with its effect.